

Marysabel Caballero and her family's world famous, prize-winning Finca El Puente, aka "The Purple Princess," have taken Honduran coffee to unprecedented levels of excellence. Leaders in super high-quality, sustainable, and environmentally responsible coffee production, the Caballeros have for years worked closely with Counter Culture Coffee to bring their truly sublime coffee to Atlanta.

As part of a rare visit to the United States, the Caballeros are coming to Atlanta for a special event at Counter Culture Coffee's Atlanta Regional Training Center. Please join us for a fun, educational evening of great coffee and good cheer with one of the world's most dedicated and talented coffee-producing families.
